25 November 2009

Get in the Christmas Spirit

Warm up your singing voices at Carols @ Multicap, a night filled with Christmas spirit, family fun, and free entertainment for the entire community to enjoy, at 303 Padstow Road, Eight Mile Plains on Saturday, 28 November 2009.

Gates open from 4.30pm with market stalls, monster raffles, lantern and music workshops, glow stick candles, show bags, and a BBQ. Carols commence at 6.00pm and will be showcasing a number of local music groups, including the Southside Singers, Multicap's community choir featuring people with multiple disabilities.

Multicap's Chief Executive Officer, Joanne Jessop, said thanks must go to the local community for ensuring the ongoing success of this wonderful suburban event.

"Thanks to our major sponsors Brisbane City Council, including Macgregor Ward, Ausenco, and Quest Community Newspapers for making our third Carols @ Multicap possible", Ms Jessop said.

"Carols @ Multicap is about bringing the community together to celebrate the festive season and showcase local talent, including our fellow Queenslanders living with multiple disabilities", she said.

The lantern and music instruments made at the earlier workshops will be used to help light Santa's way to the stage later on in the night!

Special thanks must also go to classic sponsors MacGregor Lions Club, Signwave, and Westpac Garden City and to the many other businesses and individuals who have provided support for the night with donations of raffle prizes and food produce, and volunteered their time.
